Proposals

Chris Featherstone proposes that rim brakes be phased out by 2023. After undertaking scrutineering at Blackbushe, found some still using rim brakes and not disk. Though there is no real problem with rim, disks are more effective, this is why this has been proposed, for reasons of safety. There was some discussion around the time scale and cost. It was agreed that all new builds should not be rim, all other cars to be converted by 2025. DR to check links on website to suppliers of disk brake.

Publicity

RF to explore the use of podcasts, twitter & Instagram
